The Felder Family

The progenitor of the Felder family in America was Hans Heinrich Felder, who was born in Zurich, Switzerland, about 1701. He and his wife, Ursula and his son, John Henry Felder, settled in Orangeburg Township, South Carolina, in 1735. He was granted 350 acres of land on September 17, 1738, by King George II of England. He died the same year and his wife died the following year, 1739.

John Henry Felder was the only son of Hans Heinrich Felder and his wife, Ursula. He was born about 1725. Upon growing up he dropped the name of John and in all of his subsequent career he was known as Henry Felder. Henry Felder married Miss Elizabeth Shaumlöffel, daughter of John Shaumlöffel of Orangeburg Township, in 1747. She died in 1761 and he married Miss Catherine Snell also of Orangeburg Township in 1763.

The children of Henry Felder by his first wife were:

Henry Felder born September 8, 1748.
Jacob Felder born July 22, 1750.
John Felder born December 12, 1751.
Frederick Felder born September 1, 1751.
Samuel Felder born June 5, 1755.
Abraham Felder born March 28, 1757.
Peter Felder born April 2, 1759.
Mary Elizabeth Felder born February 6, 1761.

The children by his second wife were:

Ann Margaret Felder born 1764 married John Hartzog.
Rachel Felder born 1766 married ?? Summers.
Catherine Felder born 1768 married John Walker.
Daughter born 1770 married George Hartzog.
David Felder born February 12, 1776 married Elizabeth Guess died December 18, 1849.

In 1775 Henry Felder was Justice of the Peace and Justice of the quorum for Orangeburg District. The Justice of the Peace was a far more important position in colonial days than it is today. Henry Felder was also a member of the State Legislature. He was probably educated in Zurich before he left that place. A traditional joke was that whenever he got in the Legislature to present a bill it became a law before he sat down, from which we infer he must have been a John P. Morgan in his time. Under the Provincial Government of South Carolina in 1775, Henry Felder was placed on the committee for effectually carrying into execution the continental association and for receiving and determining upon applications relative to law process for St. Matthews Parish, which included Orangeburg Township. In the same year he was elected a member of the Second Provincial Congress from St. Matthews Parish and was a member of that body when on March 26, 1776 it adopted a constitution and formed an independent government for South Carolina.

Henry Felder was employed by the second Provincial Congress to manufacture gunpowder for the revolutionary government. He was a member of the Grand Jury of Orangeburg District in 1776, that addressed Judge Drayton in favor of the Revolution. He was manager of elections and a member of the grand jury again in 1778.

Henry Felder was a Captain during the American Revolution and his company doubtless belonged to Rowe's regiment. The traditions of the Felder family say that Captain Henry Felder had seven sons, Henry, Jacob, John, Frederick, Samuel, Abraham and Peter in his company. It is said that John, the third son, was killed during the Revolutionary War. He was captured with his stepmother's brother, Snell. While the British were at dinner on the banks of the Congrave River, they attempted to escape. Snell escaped to the woods, but John Felder jumped into the river and swam across while his hands were tied, the guard shooting at him all the while. After he reached the opposite bank he was killed by his own gun in the guard's hand.

A Mr. Rice of Barnwell District was a member of Captain Felder's company during the Revolution. He was present with the company on one occasion when they whipped a body of Tories at Holman's bridge over the South Edisto River in Orangeburg District.

Captain Felder had two homes burned by the Tories during the war and at the burning of the last he lost his life. The following notice in reference to the burning of the first house appeared in the "Gazette of South Carolina, October 7, and 14, 1778." "Whereas the subscribers house was plundered and burned and all his papers were either burned or destroyed. To prevent fraudulent demands that may hereafter be made on him, he gives this public notice that those persons who have any lawful demands on him, either in books of account, bond, note of hand or otherwise, are desired to make demand on or before the first of January next ensuing and receive payment. All persons indebted to him are likewise entreated to make payment as far as may be consistent with their knowledge." September 27. Henry Felder.

Judge O'Neil in his "Bench and Bar" has this to say of Captain Henry Felder:

"This gentleman was a very active partisan in the Revolution. He brought his love of liberty from his Native Canton and like Tell of his Fatherland, he was willing to peril all rather than submit to tyranny. He guided General Sumpter in his approach to Orangeburg and bore a part in the capture of that post."

At about the close of the war, the Tories surrounded Captain Felder's house. The Gallant Swiss with the aid of his wife and servants, who loaded guns while he fired and killed more than twenty foes. His house was at last fired and he was thus forced to flee. In attempting to escape he was shot and killed.

The traditionary account of the above affair, as told by an old negro servant, who as a young man had been a witness of a part of the tragedy is as follows:

One day Captain Felder received a message from Samuel Rowe, a Whig friend, that the Tories intended to attack his home, the next day. With his sons and his overseer, whose name was Fry, he defended his house, defeated the Tories and drove them off. As soon as they had left he sent his sons through a bypath to waylay and ambush them but before reaching the ambush the enemy returned to his home and setting fire to a load of hay that was under a shed near the house, caught the house afire. Captain Felder put on some of his wife's clothes and attempted to escape but was recognized by his boots as he jumped the fence and was shot. He continued his flight for several hundred yards and dropped from the wounds received. The same negro above mentioned, was cutting wood nearby and went to his master's assistance. He was not yet dead and help being procured he was taken to a place of safety where he lived a day or two before he died. After the death of Captain Felder, his son Henry commanded the company and after the war his company formed part of the district militia.

said to have been used by Captain Felder on the occasion of the siege of that place. One of the guns has cut on it: "H.Felder 1781" and the other has a mark on it the mark "H.F."

Peter Felder, the son of Henry Felder, came from Barnwell District, South Carolina to Mississippi, in 1811, and settled on what is known as the Vaughn place near Magnolia. Peter Felder soon assisted in building a church in this community known as Felder's Church.

He was one of the commissioners appointed by the Governor, under Acts of December 9, 1815, to select, procure and fix the permanent seat of Justice of Pike County. He filled the position of one of the justices of the Orphan's Court, which had jurisdiction in probate matters.

Peter Felder's sons were: Charles who became a physician, and moved to Amite County, Peter Jr. a farmer of much wealth, Isaac who never married but devoted his time principally to agriculture pursuits, Daniel who moved to Texas and John. The daughters were Mrs. Nancy Felder Winborn, Mrs. Jane Sibley, who moved to Texas, Mrs. Mary Dickerson, Mrs. Maria Carter and Mrs. Hessiah Rawls.

John Felder, the son of Peter Felder, is the ancestor of the Felders of Pike County. He was born in Barnwell District, South Carolina, in 1793, moving with his father to Mississippi in 1811. In 1812 he married Miss Elizabeth Sandell. Twenty years later, John Felder and his wife settled on the beautiful little stream, Topisaw, nine miles from McComb. He and other people living nearby assembled in a beautiful grove to hold religious services. Later a church was built and is now called Felder Methodist Church. The land was given by John Felder to build the church and tabernacle. His picture now hangs in the church there.

John and Elizabeth Felder were the parents of Mary Catherine Felder, born September 23, 1813, who married Seaborn Alford. Elizabeth, born February 2, 1818, who married Tom McEwen, Wyatt Wesley, born May 16, 1815, married Cynthia Hope. Gabriel Nally, born March 25, 1820 married Fannie Hodges, Robert Henry, born October 9, 1824, married Elizabeth Thompson, Levi Darius, born September 22, 1822, married Martha Williams, Simeon Noble, born February 23, 1827, married Mrs. Mary Buie, Minerva Felder (birth date unknown) married Monroe McEwen.

John Felder died in 1876 and was buried near the Camp Ground in the family cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Dr. H.L. Johnson, President of the Whitworth College, who paid a touching tribute to his life. A copy of this eulogy was published in the local paper, was placed in the cornerstone of the old courthouse of Pike County. When this building was razed a number of years ago, this paper was removed and sent to a member of the family. It is now in the possession of the Felders who prize it very highly.

Peter Felder, Jr., the second son of Peter Felder, Sr., is the ancestor of the Felders of Pike and Lincoln Counties. He was born in Barnwell District, South Carolina on October 14, 1787, moving with his father to Mississippi in 1811. They settled on what is known as the Vaughn Place near Magnolia.

Peter Jr. was a farmer of much wealth and there are records to indicate he was a very religious man. His descendants have in their possession church documents containing his personal handwriting, which was most beautiful and legible. He was married to Elizabeth Lowe in South Carolina before moving to Mississippi. They were the parents of David F. Felder and Aby Jane Felder Vaughn. They were both born in Pike County, Mississippi. Peter Jr. and Elizabeth are believed to be buried in the Old Carter Cemetery near Magnolia.

The family of Aby Jane Felder Vaughn remained in the Pike County area. She and her husband are known to be buried in the Old Carter Cemetery.

Records show that David F.Felder and Lucinda Martin were married in Pike County, Mississippi in 1850. He was a land owner, slave owner, and farmer of considerable means prior to the Civil War. David F.Felder and Lucinda Martin were the parents of Malinda, Aby, Mary Elizabeth, Rachel, Rebecca, Isabelle, and David Felder(II).

The book, A Historical Sketch of Magnolia, Mississippi-Centennial Celebration-1856-1956 contains the following statement:
In February of 1860, Malinda, Aby, and Mary Felder were students of Roane's Academy, a private school in Magnolia. Tuition per month ranged from 2.5 dollars. In 1873 Roane's Academy became a public school.

David F.Felder did not fight in the Civil War. He was 45 years of age at that time, but he assisted in the war effort by making shoes for the Confederate Soldiers. Apparently, he lost most of his possessions in the Civil War, and 1870 Census Records show David F. Felder and his family residing in Lincoln County, Mississippi.

Somewhere between 1865 and 1870, David F.Felder and his family moved to an area near McCall's Creek in Lincoln County known as the William Switch Community. Although the graves are unmarked, David F.Felder and Lucinda Martin Felder are believed to be buried in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery, ten miles west of Brookhaven on Highway 84.

The descendants of David F.Felder and Lucinda Martin settled the western part of Lincoln County and have been in the community and church leaders of that area throughout the years.

please exc spelling, thanks

Yes i have been on the OGS-GS net and it is great.

Thanks for the Felder list of Mississippi, who has this database?? do they/he/she have something like this for South Carolina. After viewing this information I could not really find anything that at this time struck a bell.

I visited the Barnwell Probate court and found a few things that may have protential.

I am very excited about this, all i have to do is fill in some more missing peaces.

Here is what I have.

Hans H. Felder had one son John Henry Felder which he shorten to Henry Felder
I was told.

Johh Henry Felder I will call married 2 times and had a total of 15 children

The 10th child was named DAVID FELDER Felder born 12 feb 1776 in David Felder will states that he had a son name ARTEMUS A. FELDER.
Something happen to Artemus A. Felder and in david felder will was reference to paying room and board to a Jordan for 2 children a Mary L. Felder and a David B. (no last name).

I found a Census report showing in William D. Jordan house hold was a Mary L.
Felder (19 years old) and a David B.(15 years old) no last name since it was the last name in the report i suppose it could be david b. FELDER.
These two children room and board was paid look like from 1851 to 1859.

Many users on this list have Felder ancestors. I would like to place in discussion comments by an OGS-GS member (not on this list) in reference to the second wife of Capt. Henry Felder. "After the death of Capt. Henry Felder's first wife, Mary Elizabeth Shaumlöffel Felder, he remarried, to Miss Catherine Snell (Schnell) of Orangeburg Township. Her surname is based on the account of the death of Henry Felder's son John during the Revolution: "He was captured with his step-mother's brother, Snell.. Catherine's given name is shown in the 1790 Census, where she was listed very near to Henry Felder (Jr.). Her household consisted of no males 16 or over, two males under 16, three females (including herself), and three slaves.

The date of this marriage is given in one source as about 1763. In another source, the date is given as about 1773. Both dates appear to be presumptive, based on what the author guessed to be the date of birth of their oldest child. However, I suspect that the later date, about 1773, is probably closer to the true date of that marriage. In early 1784 his eldest son, Henry Jr. wrote that Henry Felder "left a Widow and Ten Children now living 4 of whom are young, the eldest not above 11 and the youngest not above 4 years of Age. This suggests that the oldest child in Henry Felder's "second family" was born in 1772 to early 1773, and that he married his second wife, Catherine Snell, by 1772.

One source states that Henry Felder's second wife was Anne Catherine Snell, the daughter of Goss Henry Snell and Catherina Barrin. However, I suspect that this may be based on a misinterpretation of one or more entries in the Giessendanner records, where the word "Goss" is used in some records to indicate god-parents or baptismal sponsors, and was not part of Henry's name. Anna Catharina Barrin was the godmother of Anna Catharina, daughter of Henry Snell, Sr., and his recently deceased wife Catharina. Therefore, this Anna Catharina Barrin was not the recently-deceased second wife of Henry Schnell, Sr. The name "Barrin" is a

form of "Barr".

There were three girls named Catherina Snell born between 1747 and 1758,

recorded in the Giessendanner records:

Catharina Magdalene Schnell, daughter of Adam and Margaret
Schnell, was baptized 14 April 1747.

Catharina Snell, daughter of Henry Snell, Junr., and Juliana, his wife, was born 2 February 1757.

Anna Catharina Snell, daughter of Henry Snell, Senr., and his deceased wife Catharina, was born 1-3 May 1758.

Which of these three became Capt. Henry Felder's second wife?

One clue as to the identity of Henry Felder's second wife is that she was the sister of the Snell who was captured with John Felder by the Tories during the Revolution: "He was captured with his step-mother's brother, Snell..." There are three Snell men listed as Revolutionary Soldiers in Moss' Roster: Adam, Frederick and Peter Snell.

Ann Catharina Snell, born 1-3 May 1758, daughter of Henry Snell, Senr., and his deceased second wife Catharina, would have turned 14 in 1772, the approximate year in which Capt. Henry Felder married his second wife. She had no full brothers; her half-brothers were the four

known sons of her father, all much older than she; Elias, the oldest,
was about 39 years older than she. None of these older Schnell brothers are recorded as having fought in the Revolution. Therefore, it is rather unlikely that this Catherine Snell was the second wife of Capt. Henry Felder.

Catharina Snell, born 2 February 1757, daughter of Henry Snell, Junr.

and Juliana, his wife, would have become 15 in 1772. She was the sister

of both John Peter Snell, born 24 June 1755, and John Frederick Snell, born 23 September 1759. Therefore, she was apparently the sister of two Revolutionary soldiers, both of whom were listed (as Peter Snell and Frederick Snell) as members of Captain Jacob Rumph's Company
during the Revolution.

Catharina Magdalene Schnell, baptized 14 April 1747, daughter of Adam and Margaret Schnell, would have turned 25 years of age in 1772.
She was the sister of "Johann Adam" Snell, born 24 August 1754. This was apparently the Adam Snell recorded as a Revolutionary soldier. As he was not listed as a member of Capt. Jacob Rumph's Company, it is likely that he was the "Snell" who was a member of Capt. Henry Felder's

Company, along with John Felder, Capt. Henry Felder's son (tradition says that Capt. Felder's seven sons, including John, served in his company).

As this Snell, the one serving with John Felder, was the brother of Capt.

Felder's second wife, it seems likely that this wife was Catherine M.
Snell
baptized in 1747.

Also, it seems that Capt. Henry Felder, a widower who was probably in his forties when he married the second time, would have been more likely to have chosen as his second wife a young woman of about 25, than a teenager of 15 or less.

Based on the above factors, it appears most likely that Capt. Henry Felder's second wife was Catharina Magdalene Schnell, baptized 14
April
1747, daughter of Adam and Margaret Schnell."

A good bit of what I just posted on the Felder's was given to me by Dan Lanter and there are a couple of mistakes that he brought to my attention that I thought I had corrected but apparently did it on one of my computers but not the other. I omitted a Henry Felder (1771-1807) that was the husband of Margaret Stoudemire rather than Henry (1748-1893). The other Henry's wife is unknown as far as my records go. Also Elizabeth Couliette should be the second wife of Abraham (1757-) rather than Abraham (1786-1851)

Charles,

You asked the source of the Felder info I sent to you. All data came from my database. You also asked about a database for SC. I have one but it is slim as there was no marriage requirement for marriage in SC until 1900's.

Here is my database for SC:

Dr W L Felder to Miss J S XXX No date

SC Marr & Death Notices, So Christian Adv, Vol 2

Now, I do have the Felder family book but I cannot spend all of my time doing research for one person. I will be glad

Hi Jene, and Orangeburg REserchers
This is the first time I have been on the computer since I left Orangeburg.

After the meeting Saturday I went to Charleston on Sunday to see a few relatives from there i came back to orangeburg Sunday night, Monday morning
I went to columbia, to get other data on family.. On Tuesday I spent all day at Archives and was unable to fine any thing more than what i had already known.
Tuesday night I droped my lap top and broke it bad-bad-bad.
Wednesday i got more information and pictures and came back to orangeburg
Wednesday night.

Saturday my father and I went grave yard looking. Found a few things.

Well I am still looking for something on my Great Grand Father DAVID Felder
and his wife Caroline "Carrie" Felder/Aultman

If you can be any help I would apprichate it.

I'm just catching up with my e-mail after an unexpected 2 week absence in SC
-- for those who knew I was leaving, my mother is doing well after her emergency quadruple bypass surgery and is now happily recovering from that as well as the shoulder replacement in April. On to genealogy -- a little expansion on the Felder information:

Harriet Felder, daughter of Henry Felder (b. 8 Sep 1748) and Margaret Stoudenmire, married John Avinger, b. 1787, son of Gotleib Avinger and Mary Horlbeck. Their daughter was Mary Felder Avinger, born 2 Sep 1817.

Toni,

Have terrable news!!!!

Our genealogy society keeps its books in the genealogy section of the local library. I had donated my Felder book to our genealogy society so I went to the library today to check your questions.

All after the breakdown of Henry's son Peter in missing from the book. Strange that all letters and notes in the back of the book are intact.??????

So, I went to my Hartzog files as a backup for info. Found the following:

Female Rev War Patriot: Hartzog, Catherine Schnell # 399409
m George Hartzog 1765 Orangeburg, SC.
issue: 1. John, b 16 May 1766 m Ann Margaret Felder
2. Daniel b 1774 m Susannah Zorn
3. Tobias b 1775
4. George m Rachel Felder
5. Wyatt b 1780
6. Catherine

That should put it to rest.

Jim,

Thank you for sending the pages. They were a help to me. One question, please. I have Rachel Felder, a daughter by the second wife of John Henry Felder married to George Hartzog. I have their children as well:

(Andrew Snell Felder, Francis Henry, Elovisy Jane, James Franklin, Aristarchus, Dave, Jackson, Rachel and George . Who is the man you have as the husband of Rachel? You indicated it was another daughter that you did not have a name for. I may have an error there. I will want to correct that.

You are an amazing person. You are fortunate to have the handwritten pages by Salley. I do not have those as I told you. I have only the transcript.

Thank you once again. You have been a tremendous help to me.

Thanks for the offer on the Nicholas Till information, but I probably have it if it's from Salley's book.

I would be interested in the FELDER info though. I work on a lot of families who came to Amite, Lawrence, Pike, and Franklin Co., MS.
Peter
FELDER's son, John FELDER, had a son Wyatt Wesley FELDER whose daughter, Charlotte Ann FELDER, married Hiram Elisha THORNHILL, Thomas Jefferson ROLLINS, and William Nathan BROWN, Jr. All three of these men are related to my husband. Are you from any of these lines? I'd be glad to swap or share info.

I also believe the TILL's tie into the FELDER's in Orangeburg though not my direct line.

Good to hear from you.

Gene, Dan, Jim S., Barbara P., and everyone else, Today was my breakthrough day for solving a problem in my Felder
line that has been tormenting me for six months. I am very happy. I will send detailed info to anyone who wants it. I cannot take the credit for the solution. Much of it must go to Gene, Jim and the ever faithful, Dan Lanter. Also, to Jim Felder, the person who submitted his Gedcom file to Southern Traveller on the WWW, which first started me on my search.
This is how it goes for me.

Hans Heinrich Felder Abt 1701 Switzerland
John Henry Felder 12 Feb 1722 Orangeburg, SC

John Henry has seven sons and one daughter by his wife. My problem has always been, which son is the line I come down through? By a process I used to narrow the field, I decided it had to be either Samuel
(son 5) or Abraham (son 6). Today I decided to re-read the files off the Internet and I ran across a sideline that said Abraham settled in Elloree, SC. Then I re-read the notes I took six months ago when I spoke with my great aunt in Orangeburg who is 91 years old. She told me all she knew about her Felder Family is that they lived in Parlors and her grandfather's name was Adam. And then she said, "You know, today Parlors is by Elloree." Well, I certainly overlooked that important piece of info. When I connected it all today, these are the remaining generations.

Happy aniversary to our little group. I'm afraid that I have neglected my Orangburg research lately (I know, shame on me), but I ran across some new leads on the Lanter's and had to try to track them down. Anyway, my Orangeburg interests have been mainly with Felder family and in particular John Henry and his son Peter Felder, but I am also researching the Lowe and

I just wonder if the book was ever published in copy form. The copy I have is in handwriting. This book came up once before and someone else in our group said that they also had a copy.. Maybe they will answer the question for us.

My copy was given to me by my 1st cousin who is married to John Felder Buchanan.

Thank you for your contribution of the Felder Cemetery list in MS. Several dates were added to my Felder files. You and Dan Lanter have been wonderful.

I have asked over Gene's list several times if anyone has ever heard of Adam R. Felder of Parllor Dist. near Orangeburg. I found him on the 1900 Census. With all but one of his children. The missing son is my great grandfather, William Clifford who is buried in Ebenezer Church Cemetery 8 miles from Bowman, SC. I am searching for Adam's father. Any clues?

Dear Gene,

Thank you so much for responding to my inquiry about Adam Felder. I called your home this evening and I decided to send you an e-mail so I can go more into detail. I hope you can help me as I am going a little crazy trying to make it all fit together.

There were seven brothers, all belonging to John Henry Felder the son of Hans Heinrich Felder who all the Felders of SC can thank for their existence. I have been trying to solve which brother my line comes down through, and I have determined by elimination that it has to be either Abraham or Samuel. The others don't fit. The Adam Claude Felder you suggested might be the Adam I am looking for doesn't fit. Since I mailed my letter to you I found an ADAM R. FELDER on the 1900 Census with his children, but no wife. My great-grandfather was one of the children. But now, who was Adam's father? I don't know.

Also, I thought Adam Calude Felder went to Mississippi and lived. My Adam stayed in Pelzer which is near Orangeburg. As you probably already know. Sorry, I may have forgotten to tell you this. This forgetfulness could be caused by mental pause, or the other pause, I'm not totally sure. Middle age is creeping up on me.

This is how I believe it happened, but I cannot prove it, and unless I can, I won't be sure.

Hans Heinrich Felder, 1701
John Henry Felder, 1722
Abraham, 1757 or Samuel, 1755 Felder
I wish I knew Felder (maybe Jacob Felder, 1780) 1830 Census
I can't be sure Felder
Adam R. Felder,
Clifford William Felder,
Sam Danner Felder, 1908 - my grandfather

I left a lot of my notes at the genealogy library here in Payson, so I am going for memory on some of this, but what do you think? Also, another question, if James, the father of Adam Claude Felder is the some of an Abraham, it can't be Abraham 1757, the son of John Henry, there are too many years that separate them. So, did Abraham, 1757 have a son named Abraham, and if so, do you have the decendency down from Abraham?

I would very much like to know more about your Orangeburg German-Swiss Genealogical Society. You said the group was "a good group of serious researchers". I am a good genealogist, but as you can see, not too serious. Anyway, how would I go about joining?

Thank you so much for your help. And may I say, the young person

I spoke with on the telephone was so very polite to me. I always enjoy talking with people from home.

If I haven't thoroughly dragged you into my confusion, please help while there is still a brain left in my head. I'm not a professional genealogist, but I do try to be accurate in my data and I am hoping you can help. I will gladly return help in any way I can.

Dan Lanter and others researching Felders

I just received my third volume of the World Family Tree CD's and there are more Felders listed than what was on the first two volumes. There are more children listed for John Baily Felder, Sophia Ann Felder, and for Ann Margaret Felder wife of John Hartzog.

I also received the SS death benefit CD's and am going through them now to list SSN's for all in my file.

I will make a new GEDCOM File of my felders, and provide it to those interested.

(name and address)

Dear Mrs. Buchanan,

I have recently had an exciting exchange of electronic mail with your cousin, Jim Steinwinder. His intense interest in family history seems well suited for the current electronic age. As Genealogist of the Orangeburgh, South Carolina German-Swiss Genealogical Society, my purpose in this letter is to discuss much older communications and artifacts.

The primary goal of our Society is to "promote the collection and preservation of early records of the people of Orangeburgh Township, South Carolina". Many descendants of the early pioneers, with their family possessions, their family Bibles, etc., migrated to vast new frontiers. My job, and a labor of love, is an attempt to retrieve some of these historical family treasures (or copies thereof) and to make them assessable to the widest research audience as possible.

Our Archives, located in the Salley Museum, Orangeburg, South Carolina, is currently receiving a face lift but will be available for public research in a few months. Anything, you are willing to share with our Society would be greatly appreciated. The Felder and allied families are still some of the most noted and respected families in South Carolina.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Gene T. Jeffries

Hi

My name is Michael Freyder. My grandmother was a Felder, Johnnie Wilhmena.

She lived in the Kentwood LA, Osyka MS area until the 1930's when she died in child birth. I have been in touch with Dan Lanter, and it was he that gave me your address. I have done some limited research into the Felders, and have been in touch with Rice Felder in Cayce, SC. I have been trying to do as complete of a research as I can get, from the Felders in Switzerland to the youngest today. Any help that you may provide would be appreciated. I don't know right off how to let you know what I have at the present, but I can tell you that I have two CD's that the Broderbund Co put out that have trees submitted by several Felder researchers, and have done quite a lot of the Louisiana/Texas Felders.

Thanks again for listening

Mike

Ref your req for photo of Felder Potrait. I have a poloroid of the potrait. Saw it in the last few days. Cannot locate it tonight. Will send it as soon as it reappears.

As I wrote to Dan Lanter John Felder Buchanan is not the least bit interested in family history exchange. He is a retired Houston oil lawyer and spends his time touring the world. His wife Peggy is my first cousin so I get all data, such as the poloroid, from her. Following are excerpts from her letters which I revisited before writing this.

.....John's family keeps things better than we do. We even have the newspaper account of his uncle's death at the battle of Chicamauga. We have the silver they hid in the river when the yankees were coming (engraved JEB.) We have an oil potrait of his Great Great uncle the original John Myers Felder, a South Carolina Senator.....

.....The potrait of John Myers Felder was rolled up and taken to Mexico by John's Grandparents.... there is a saber cut in it but the aunts had it repaired and framed. There were potraits of all of the family but we do not know what happened to them...We have the silver used at Midway Plantation...engraved on the back is JEB for John and Emma Buchanan.

.....In securing the line which was through Catherine Barrillon, Aunt Kitty found that they were eligible fot the Huguenot Society....the Felders came to Texas and settled at Chappell Hill before the Civil War. John's Great Grandparents left Orangeburg, SC (their plantation was named Midway) and

Dan,

I am not connected to the Felder family, not that I am aware. Jim sent me a newspaper article back in 1991 regarding the Camp meeting in Shiloh,
MS. We have many OGS-GS members from Rankin County. The story on how so many Orangeburgers settled in that area is interesting.

Gene. I talked by landline to my cousin Peggy, wife of John Felder Buchanan, today and she advises me that she has other info that might interest the society.

She offered to have a better copy of the John Myers Felder made and send it to the society. Don't be timid. She has barrels of money.

She does request though that she correspond with one person. I would suggest that person be you. I have previously sent to you her address.

The progenitor of the SC Felder clan was Hans Heinrick Felder who with his wife Ursula and son John Henry came from Switzerland to Orangeburgh Township in the year 1735.

He was granted 200 acres of land on Sept 17, 1736. He was subsequently granted another 100 acres later but died within two years of his grant. His widow died in 1739 leaving the son under the guardianship of Henry Wurtzer of Orangeburgh.

For some reason my book ends here except for about 50 pages of notes and letters. can't imagine what happened to the rest of it.

The last line on this page says, " The history of the Sorry about that although I am sure the book in toto is in the Salley museum in Orangaeburg.

God I hope I didn't make any major mistakes.

Many users on this list have Felder ancestors. I would like to place in discussion comments by an OGS-GS member (not on this list) in reference to the second wife of Capt. Henry Felder. "After the death of Capt. Henry Felder's first wife, Mary Elizabeth Shaumlöffel Felder, he remarried, to Miss Catherine Snell (Schnell) of Orangeburg Township. Her surname is based on the account of the death of Henry Felder's son John during the Revolution: "He was captured with his step-mother's brother, Snell.. Catherine's given name is shown in the 1790 Census, where she was listed very near to Henry Felder (Jr.). Her household consisted of no males 16 or over, two males under 16, three females (including herself), and three slaves.

The date of this marriage is given in one source as about 1763. In another source, the date is given as about 1773. Both dates appear to be presumptive, based on what the author guessed to be the date of birth of their oldest child. However, I suspect that the later date, about 1773, is probably closer to the true date of that marriage. In early 1784 his eldest son, Henry Jr. wrote that Henry Felder "left a Widow and Ten Children now living 4 of whom are young, the eldest not above 11 and the youngest not above 4 years of Age. This suggests that the oldest child in Henry Felder's "second family" was born in 1772 to early 1773, and that he married his second wife, Catherine Snell, by 1772.

One source states that Henry Felder's second wife was Anne Catherine Snell, the daughter of Goss Henry Snell and Catherina Barrin. However,

I suspect that this may be based on a misinterpretation of one or more entries in the Giessendanner records, where the word "Goss" is used in some records to indicate god-parents or baptismal sponsors, and was not part of Henry's name. Anna Catharina Barrin was the godmother of Anna Catharina, daughter of Henry Snell, Sr., and his recently deceased wife Catharina. Therefore, this Anna Catharina Barrin was not the recently-deceased second wife of Henry Schnell, Sr. The name "Barrin" is a feminine

form of "Barr".

There were three girls named Catherina Snell born between 1747 and 1758,
recorded in the Giessendanner records:

Catharina Magdalene Schnell, daughter of Adam and Margaret
Schnell, was baptized 14 April 1747.

Catharina Snell, daughter of Henry Snell, Junr., and Juliana,
his

wife, was born 2 February 1757.

Anna Catharina Snell, daughter of Henry Snell, Senr., and his deceased wife Catharina, was born 1-3 May 1758.

Which of these three became Capt. Henry Felder's second wife?

One clue as to the identity of Henry Felder's second wife is that she was the sister of the Snell who was captured with John Felder by the Tories during the Revolution: "He was captured with his step-mother's brother, Snell..." There are three Snell men listed as Revolutionary Soldiers in Moss' Roster: Adam, Frederick and Peter Snell.

Ann Catharina Snell, born 1-3 May 1758, daughter of Henry Snell, Senr., and his deceased second wife Catharina, would have turned 14 in 1772, the approximate year in which Capt. Henry Felder married his second wife. She had no full brothers; her half-brothers were the four

known sons of her father, all much older than she; Elias, the oldest,
was about 39 years older than she. None of these older Schnell brothers are recorded as having fought in the Revolution. Therefore, it is rather unlikely that this Catherine Snell was the second wife of Capt. Henry Felder.

Catharina Snell, born 2 February 1757, daughter of Henry Snell, Junr.

and Juliana, his wife, would have become 15 in 1772. She was the sister

of both John Peter Snell, born 24 June 1755, and John Frederick Snell, born 23 September 1759. Therefore, she was apparently the sister of two Revolutionary soldiers, both of whom were listed (as Peter Snell
and Frederick Snell) as members of Captain Jacob Rumph's Company
during the Revolution.

Catharina Magdalene Schnell, baptized 14 April 1747, daughter of Adam and Margaret Schnell, would have turned 25 years of age in 1772.
She was the sister of "Johann Adam" Snell, born 24 August 1754. This was apparently the Adam Snell recorded as a Revolutionary soldier. As he was not listed as a member of Capt. Jacob Rumph's Company, it is likely that he was the "Snell" who was a member of Capt. Henry Felder's

Company, along with John Felder, Capt. Henry Felder's son (tradition says that Capt. Felder's seven sons, including John, served in his company).

As this Snell, the one serving with John Felder, was the brother of

Gene Jeffries, 05:38 PM 12/17/96, Felder - Snell

Capt.

Felder's second wife, it seems likely that this wife was Catherine M. Snell baptized in 1747.

Also, it seems that Capt. Henry Felder, a widower who was probably in his forties when he married the second time, would have been more likely to have chosen as his second wife a young woman of about 25, than a teen-ager of 15 or less.

Based on the above factors, it appears most likely that Capt. Henry Felder's second wife was Catharina Magdalene Schnell, baptized 14 April 1747, daughter of Adam and Margaret Schnell."

A good bit of what I just posted on the Felder's was given to me by Dan Lanter and there are a couple of mistakes that he brought to my attention that I thought I had corrected but apparently did it on one of my computers but not the other. I omitted a Henry Felder (1771-1807) that was the husband of Margaret Stoudemire rather than Henry (1748-1893). The other Henry's wife is unknown as far as my records go. Also Elizabeth Couliette should be the second wife of Abraham (1757-) rather than Abraham (1786-1851)

FELDER FAMILY RECORD

11 Sons Served Confederate Army
by Michael Soper
Roving Reporter

April 11, 1961

ORANGEBURG--The Felder family one of the oldest in Orangeburg, gave 11 sons to the Confederate Army.

This may be the record number supplied by one family, according to a descendant, Marion H. Felder of Orangeburg. His 15 years of tracing the family background in this country and Europe makes a good detective story.

The 11 sons were offspring of his great-grandparents, Frederick Joseph Daniel Felder and Margaret Bowman Felder. They lived in the vicinity of what is now Bowman and had a total of 18 children.

In 1736 Hans Henrich Felder brought the family to America at Charleston. When South Carolina seceded, five of his descendants enlisted there and participated in the bombardment of Ft. Sumter. The other six Felder boys joined the Confederate Army shortly afterward.

The Felders were split up among different armies. Daniel R. and President Y. A. Felder died in action. Lovick E. D. Felder was wounded in fighting around Richmond.

The other eight sons returned to Orangeburg County after Appomattox. They were George B., John M., Frederick W. Sebastian F., David W., Samuel, Reddick A. H., and Jacob O. H. Sebastian is the grandfather of Marion H. Felder.

Their father had died July 8, 1860 and their mother had passed away the following August 18, soon after they enlisted.

The inscription on her headstone reads: "She raised a large family of children, five daughters and 13 sons, 11 of whom served in the late war. Her children rise up and call her blessed."

Her remains and those of her husband now rest in an Orangeburg cemetery. Marion H. Felder moved them there three years ago from the family plot near Bowman.

Success as president of the Orangeburg Pecan Co. has enabled Mr. Felder to spend considerable time and money in tracing his family's history.

He began his search by asking help from the late Alex Salley, state historian. Mr. Salley found a clue. It was the word, "Zurich", on an 18th-century king's grant given the Felders, who then owned large tracts between Orangeburg and Charleston.

In Zurich, Switzerland, the only person named Felder was the police chief. He said the family originated at Lucerne and he referred Mr. Felder to a physician there, Dr. Franz Felder.

General John Buckman who was your great grandfather married a Miss of a brother-in-law, the brother

A GRAVEYARD STORY IN PART

Orangeburg's First Settler Lie Buried in Plot that has Suffered from Sherman's Guns and Wandering Cows---Church of Wood and Clay that Stood There Long Ago Passed Away.

By MARION SALLEY

On North Broughton street in Orangeburg, now the main highway from Charleston to the Up-Country, if traffic will allow him, the traveler will notice a large lot, on which are standing a number of tall pines. At first this appears to be just a vacant tract of land which has never been used for building purposes, but if one drives slowly, one can recognize at a distance several old gravestones, or plots surrounded by brick walls. And a very ancient graveyard it is, known for a hundred years, as "the old graveyard." Here stood the first church in the village of Orangeburgh and her Orangeburgh's early settlers and prominent citizens of several generations lie buried.

When the Orangeburgh settlers arrived in 1735, they clustered together near the banks of the Edisto River and built their dwellings near each other in the form of a small town, probably supposing the adjacent stream would be advantageous in forming an outlet for them to Charleston, in transportation of lumber and other commodities. These first settlers were German and Swiss emigrants, and with the third arrival of these sturdy people in 1737, there came from Switzerland a minister, the Rev. John Ulrich Giessendanner. It is supposed that very soon began the erection of a church of the faith of the Swiss Zwingalists, whose creed was partly Lutheran, partly Calvinistic, though it has long been known as "the first Lutheran Church in the Carolinas."

RECORD BEGUN IN 1737

In the fall of 1737, this minister, the first John Giessendanner began a record of all of the marriages, baptisms and deaths in the church, or at which he officiated, and this was continued by his nephew and successor, the second John Giessendanner. The latter made the following note concerning the record, which still exists, and has been copied by A. S. Salley in his History of Orangeburg County:

"Anno 1740"

"This book should be carefully preserved that those who may wish to know of their family may find it in the Book of Record". And thanks to this old record, Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution have been able to file their applications and become members, nearly two hundred years later.

In 1738, the first minister died, he having been married just the year before as the following record proves:

"Anno ----1737.

"Nov. 15 I John Ulrich Giessendanner got married---in presence of many witnesses--to my housekeeper who for 26 years served in our house & who from affection and to escape family troubles followed me over the ocean & to prevent & obviate any cause, offence or scandal I married her, privately. Major Motte, read the marriage service. May Jesus unite us closely in love, as well as all faithful married people, and cleanse and unite us with himself."

The fact that the marriage ceremony was read by on Major motte, proves that there was at that time no other minister in the community, and another record states that Major Motte read in the minister's presence a marriage ceremony in English, which language was not familiar to the Swiss minister.

WEDDING BANNS PUBLISHED

On April 12th, 1738, a record tells of publishing banns in the presence of the church congregation, so that some sort of church building must have been in Orangeburgh at that early date. In the fall, the minister died, and older chroniclers concluded that he must have been buried in the churchyard, now "the old graveyard," but a citizen now living in Orangeburgh has located an old paper which shows that the first person to be buried in the "Church yard at Orangeburgh" was "Dorothy Moorer, wife of Peter Moorer, Junr., who was buried Feb. 25th, 1749."

Probably there was some other burial spot in or near the village where now rests the dust of the first Orangeburg preacher, for several years ago an old graveyard, of which nothing was known, was disturbed by some workman for the city, who uncovered a collection of bones, among which were handwrought nails, showing that the burials were made many years ago. But, after 1750 there are records of many burials in the churchyard with no traces of the graves now evident. One record made in that year reads as follows:

"On Saturday March 30th was entered in the churchyard of Orangeburgh the Body of Gideon Jennings an old Protestant Italian Liver in this Township these 14 years past, who died the day before, his age unknown." Yet, one of the oldest stones to be seen here today is that of a grandson of this Gideon Jennings. The grandson was born in 1753 and died in 1814. The tombstone inscription reads: "In Memory of Gideon Jennings, Esq. an affectionate husband and a faithful friend. He died 11th February, 1814, aged 61 years & 5 days much lamented by all his friends & relations but his better part yet lives."

SECOND MINISTER COMES

In 1739, there came to take charge of the Orangeburgh church, which seems to have embraced the Lutheran faith entirely by this time, the second John Giesendanner, "a man of the Holy Scriptures." He followed his uncle's example in keeping the church record, and in 1742 records the baptism of his own son, Henry. He labored as a Lutheran Minister until 1749, when he took orders as an Episcopal minister and the church was changed into an Episcopal house of worship. As an Episcopal minister, John Geissendanner continued until his death, and he is evidently the minister mentioned by Wedgewood in his journal of a journey through South Carolina.

For more than a hundred years, the church edifice has been but a memory. The original church is said to have been built of wood and clay, in much the same manner as clay chimneys are built, and it is reasonable to suppose that weather and time caused it to fall into decay. It stood at the top of a little hill or knoll, and between the churchyard and the street was the village parade ground, and military musters and parades were great events a century ago.

The site of the church, also became a burial place, and for many years this was the village cemetery, the only others in the community being owned and used by private families. Here were buried, probably, a number who served in the revolution, among them Col. Christopher Rowe, but all the stones old enough, save one or two, to have marked the graves of Revolutionary soldiers, have disappeared. Here later were interred members of the Glover family, Rickenbackers, Stromans, Sistrunks, Jamisons, and other noted people of the early nineteenth century.

SANDERS GLOVER EPITAPH

A noted surveyor of long ago was John Barrillon whose remarkably legible handwriting is still to be seen on old plats and other "land papers". His own stone is not now to be seen, but that of his wife, Adeline, who died in 1847, is still standing. Sanders Glover, a former county officer, who passed in 1853, has an epitaph stating that "as a citizen his many virtues commanded the esteem and confidence of all." Still standing is a modest stone erected by a kind master, "To my Faithful Servant, Henry."

With the coming of the railroad in 1838, the village grew to the eastward, a new Episcopal church was erected near the railroad, and while the old graveyard still belonged to the diocese of South Carolina, it gradually became used by rich and poor alike, "without leave or hindrance."

By the time the War Between the States came on, new cemeteries had been started in the yards of new churches in the village, though many continued to bury in the old plot. But trespassing on the sacred spot had already begun, and the story is told that a traveler, stopping at a village tavern, on noticing the peculiar shape of kindling used by a darkey who was making a fire in his room, asked where these boards came from, and received the reply. "Dev come out de gravey'ad, suh." On learning that grave-markers were being burned in the fireplace of his room, the traveler hastened on.

When Sherman's army entered the village, it is said that shells were thrown from across the Edisto, prior to the army's crossing, and some of these fell in the graveyard, wrecking tombstones. In a skirmish, nearby, however, several Texans were killed and their bodies were brought into the town and given burial in this cemetery. After the war a number who had fallen in battle were removed from their burial places in Virginia and brought home to the "old graveyard." Among these were George Elliott of the Edisto Rifles, Fordham McKewn and others. A few years ago, the Paul McMichael Chapter, U. D. C. on finding it impossible to locate the graves of Confederate soldiers buried here, erected a large stone, bearing the names of as many as were known. Among those were Lieut. Elliott, Fordham McKewn, Thomas Elliott, Drewry Gardner, Daniel Joyner, J. Wesley Smoak, Daniel Joyner, William Corror and others unknown.

NEGROES BURY THERE

After the war when the negroes were free, they had no burial ground of their own, and the town authorities, very likely Radicals, gave them permission to use the old parade ground, at the foot of the little hill for their cemetery. But the negroes did not confine their interments to the ground allotted them. Many carried their dead into the old cemetery further away, found it easy to dig into ancient graves, sometimes throwing the remains of their out bones, and there they deposited the remains of their people.

In years past, citizens stated that they had seen bones of somebody's buried ancestors more than once. The negro burials were prohibited after the matter had been reported to town authorities, who took over the property in the years succeeding Reconstruction days. Once or twice a year the place is cleaned by laborers employed by the city, and in the winter months, when vegetation is dead, one might, if so inclined, stroll around and read the inscriptions on the ancient stones. Several years ago, when the U. D. C. members were preparing to unveil their stone, honoring the Confederate dead buried here, one of the officers escorted several Boy Scouts around, showing them the old stones and telling them of the persons who were laid here long ago. And as they stood beside the grave of a native German who came to Orangeburg long ago and became one of the town's substantial citizens, one of the boys commented, "Well, you've got your foot on a bone right now." The lady gasped, and then collected her wits, replying, "Oh, I guess this is a cow's bone, some dog has brought here." But the more she thought of it, the more she feared that she had literally been trampling on the grandfather of one of her friends. Investigation proved, however, that the bone was really that of a bovine and not of a human.

The tall pines, standing guard, are the one attractive feature of the silent old place. Sometimes, if the grass looks tempting, some nearby resident will turn his cow in the graveyard to graze, and it has been said that some of the old stones have been pulled down by cows winding their chains around them.

It takes a vivid imagination to picture the little clay and wood church of nearly two hundred years ago, and a faithful congregation giving attention to the discourses of the Rev. Giessendanner, who probably was well pleased as he wrote:

"On Easter, 1753, had 107, one hundred and seven communicants all from Germany--- Michael Larry provided the wine for the Sacrament for Easter, 1753"

Dear Baby,

I can give you a sorter history or our family during the Civil War.

We were in South Carolina when the war brok out during the sege of Fort Sumpter at Charleston. We lost 3 uncles in the war, Uncle John & Sam Felder came home from Charleston with Tyaford Fever and died. Uncle Wm. B. got kiled in the Second Battle of Manasa. My Mother dug up the dirt in the smoke House and boiled it to get salt to Put in our food. About second year of war we moved to chericee county Alabama and bout the Bill Yancy Farm on the cuser river 20 miles from Rome Geo. & lived there untill General Sherman marched through Alabama with 10,000 men. he camped at ceder Bluff for 10 days. Just 4 miles from our place. & during that period there were swarms of them on our Farm hauling of corn hogs potatoes. Hay and everything they could eat. We had about a care load of flour in the barn & My Mother told them it was sick wheat & they lafed at her. But the nex day some of them wanted to come out & kill her said she had poisoned it. But some Officers told them they had seen sick wheat ' she had told them the truth about it. We had lots of Bee gums. & a man would take one on this Sholder & run with it & a nother wouldrun along with him & beat the gum with a sick to make the bees come out & of corse they went back to wher the gum was takes from. We had lots of chickens & gees they kiled & took all, Ther was one gouse left & too Officers rode up one morning & saw it & told my Mother she had better have it kiled ther would be nothing left on the place for her to eat in a day or to. So she had Abe the son of the cook who was about 2 years Older than I to catch it for the Old Mary the cook. So she dressed it & put it on to cook. About 12 oclock the same too Officers came back went in the Kitchen got a clean dish towel raped it up & rode of th the camp. Mary caled my Mother she went to the cook house & blessed then out. they just looked at her & laft at her.

There was an Old well at the Gin House that had caved in & nearly filed up. the water was about 8 feet from the top with som pieces of curb in floating about in it. & the frogs that fell in the well would get on these pieces of kerbin to keet from drowning. So Abe and Myself went to the river bank & cut us som sticks Sharpened the end of them. then laid on our belles & would gig the frogs we could reach So Abe tried to gig on that was a little too far & slid head first in the well I ran to the House & told Mary his Mother & She brought a rope & threw to him & she puled him up the bank, but he sur was a sight to look at with mut all Over him from being puled up the bank of well.

When we moved to Alabama the Tories or northern people here very bad. they had kiled several Southern men, So the Confedret Government Sent a young named Gatewood with Orders to raise a band of men & keep down the tories. He finally raised 100 men all armed with Six Shooters one in each boot one in each sadel pocket & 2 in a belt on ther wast. they carried some Rifles and shot Guns. My Father having a large Farm big House 13 rooms with plenty of feed and pasture he made our place his headqurtes & My Father Joined his Band & was second in comand when the Band was split he was captain of one. So when Sherman army got within 50 Miles of Ceder bluff. Gateward comensed to anor him by killing his foraging squads & capturing what teems wagons & stock they had & he would send to our Farm to be put in pasture & attended to. We had 60 grown negros & an overseaor so ther was plenty of help to attend to eveything they sent ther. We had 25 wagons with 4 big mules for each to one time. We had 500 head of beeves at one time & a lot of good horses. General Farris would send a company of men down & get then whenever there were enough to come after. My Father moved all of our stock and negroes across the cuser river just before Sherman got to Ceder bluff. So ther was only Mother & Miself the cook and Abe & too other negros left on the place. We had about 100 acres of river bottom land that was planted in corn with pumpkins planted in the corn & you could almost step from one pumpkin to amother they were so thick on the ground. Well the Yankeys didnt leave us enough corn to make big homeny to eat, but they couldt use all the pumkins. so we lived on pumkin bread for a mont. we had a little corn meal on hand & we would put a hand full of meal in a pan of pumkin & baket it & U never got so tired of anything in my life it would turn my stomak to look at it. Mr. Gateward dressed as a woman & went into shermans camp with 4 or 5 wimon & beged for rations. In those days the wonon all wore long dresses & hoops wich hid ther feet. & big sun bonnets that covered their sholders & the upper part of the bonnet was stiffened with inch stripes of Stiff pasboard & the bonet extended out over the face 6 inches you could ondy see a womans face when she was looking at you. Dont know why he went but he made the trip all O. K. & brought back some flour & coffee.

He brought in one of his Men wounded & left him at Mrs Williams a neighbor of ours in a few days he took Lock jaw. The Doctor took out 2 of his teeth so they could feed him. he got no better & the Dcotor told Mr. william he would die & ther was no need for him to come back. So My Mother asked the Dr if she could Doctor him. The Dr asked her what she would give him & She said cock roches & Brandy. So he told her the Roches would not hert him & the brandy might do thim some food & to go ahead. So Mother put Abe & myself to catching roches & we soon found out how to catch them get a small brush to kill them with & when we hit at one we got him every tim.

We had a nice peach orchard so we alwase kept a barrel of brandy and a barel of wine in the seller. So Mother filed a bottl 1/2 full of rches & filed ti up with Brandy & carried it over to him. But Mrs William kept the Bottle locked up to keep him from drinking to much & said he would dring the legs of the roches. anyway in 3 or 4 days he could open his muith & eat. Mother would make nice things & carry them over to him. She carried him som Cillybub one day & he would ask for it every day. It is made of whiped cream with wine & sugar aded & a little nutmeg & cinamon. He got well & said Mother was his Sayvorer, & went back into Gatewards band.

When the Yankeys had striped our Farm Mr. Dozel lived right across the River about 4 hundred yds from the river & you could stand on this side & see the chickens & Turkeys in his yard. So about a doz Yankeys desided to go over & get some of them so they drug up som big gate post & got the leavers that off that the mules puled the Gin by & draget them down the river then ripped of siding from the Barn & made a flore on the timber nailing it together. anyway when they got everything ready ther were only 4 that would go, So after cutting som poles to push with they started & went all right untill they got in about 5 or 10 feet of the Pank when Som-boddy comensed shooting then & kiled all 4 befor they could get ther guns. Then the ones on this side lit out to report to headquarters that was about the middle of the evening. So in about an hour Mose ovr carage driver came over & told Mother that Father said to leave as soon as it was dark & we did in 20 minits after we left Mother Myself & Mose, Mary the cook, said she could see our lite down the river Bank about 1/2 mile when 50 or 75 cavary run up to the House & surounded it serch it found nobeddy & set it on fire. after that

So we started for Texas. after sending back & got Mary & Abe & the other too. We got to Scuber Mississippi & stabled ther a seven days to let the teems rest up. They had done lots of ditching in that county & ther was water in all the ditches & you never saw the like of Craw fish in them & we kids almost lived on craw fish while ther. The day before we had set to leave. a confedrit officer came to our camp & told My Mother that Lee had serended the darkeys would be free & that they had an army store house ther & to send

4 wagons down & get all the flour and bacon she wanted for her darkeys that in a few days the Yankeys would seize it all, so she sent 4 wagons & they loded them with flour & Bacon & some hams. Mother gave all the darkey more than a months rashians & went back to Marshelville Georgr with the teams & enougs darkeys to drive them. My Father met us ther sold the teams & he & Gateward left for Mexico as Sherman had Ofered $1000.00 for his or Gatewards head & Said that there band had given him more trouble then General Forests hole army. So they were afraid to stay in this country & Mother & family with 2 darkeys came to Texas by rail . from New Orlean to Galveston by boat & from Galveston to Houston by Boat.

there was 2 Bots run between Galveston & Houston at that time. Name the T M Bagby & the Dianna. the depot of Houston was a box house about 20 by 16 they had 4 mules to every Buss mud knee deep in all streets I remember only 2 place of business The Washington Hoteli & Langs Oyster House the branch from Hempstead to Austin was not built at that time we got off at Navasota & came here about 1 year & my Father came back from Mexico & we went back with him. Crosed the Gulf from Galveston to Tuxpan in a 20 ton boat was 10 days going 500 miles had 3 storms during the trip. a hard norther when we got to the mouth of the Tuxpan River Pilot could not come out to cary us over the bar so we anored for the night with 3 anshors out & Still draging anchor we had lost our center board several days before so the Captain told us nex morning that he had to leave there & he didnt want to go to sea without a center board & he didnt think he could get away from the beach without a center board so he would have to try & gess at the channell we had about 20 passengers aboard. 3 Mothers with familys. so he put all Kids & woman to low deck & seal down haches. & all men to puling up anchor & they came up in a hurry & with sales set we started water going all over the boat from evry big wave. All thought we wer in the channel when a big wave set us down on a san bar, all the woman screamed but the next wave carred ys over in chanel. evy boddy on deck was ringing wet. Well an Officer came aboard & we went on up the river to Tuxpan 6 miles then on to Tonodaro 35 miles & when we got there, there was only 25¢ in monev left in Outfit so Mother sold a Gold watch an Uncle gave her for 2500 & we lived on that for about 60 days. then we moved back close to Tuxpan & went to making sugar for Mr Work. Brother Jack cut cain Father fed the mill & I fired & boiled the juice. we had a darky name Fred to pack off the bagass & he would have epilectic fits & would loose 2 or 3 hours work evey time he had one. so one one day My Father saw him roling his eyes & he threw a cup of cain juce in his face & the shock woke him up so after that when any of us saw he was going to have a fit we would hit him with a stork of cain or grab him & try to shake him to pieces & we almost cured him of having fits. but one day his Mother sent him to the buye for a bucket of water & he had one, fell in & drowned. We got 50 cents a day for our work at the mill.

When we lived in Alabama Mother raised enough silk to make a dress for each of her 3 sisters & herself. She got some eggs & put them in the sun & they hatched. Abe and myself had to gather mulberry leaves for them every morning and evening & they grew to be big fat white worms & had lots of sense. She kept them on tables in a 20 by 20 room. & when you opened the door and had leaves in your hand every one of them would start to crawl towards you. "You had to hurry & put leaves on the table or they would all fall on the floor. When they were grown she would twist a piece of paper like a funnel & put one in it & he would cover himself with silk 1/2 inch deep. Then She would put them in Hot water to kill the worm & soften the paper then peel the paper off the ball of silk. then hunt the end & fasten to a reel & put the ball in a tub of water & continue that until she had 60 that is the number it took to make one thread to weave into cloth. She would turn the reel & whenever the ball failed to turn over it was loose & she sought the end & fastened it in the thread with the other.

The Felder Family of South Carolina

The progenitor of the Felder Family in South Carolina was Hans Heinrich Felder, who with his wife Ursula and son John Henry, settled in Orangeburgh Township in 1735 and obtained the Surveyor General's permit to have a tract of two hundred acres of land laid out to him. This land was fully granted to him by Lieutenant Governor Broughton Sept. 17th, 1736th and he subsequently obtained another grant of one hundred acres. He died a year or two later leaving surviving him his wife and child.

He is said to have come from Zurich, Switzer-

Alfred F. Felder

Died, May 16th 1899.

An Old Citizen of Washington County Passed Away.

Died, at 5:30 o'clock, Tuesday, afternoon, Mr. Alfred F. Felder, aged 71 years, 10 months and 20 days.

The death of Mr. Felder did not come as a surprise to his relatives or his friends. He has been ill for a long time and a few months ago was forced to take his bed. Kind friends and loving hands have ministered to his every want, but it was known that his days were fast drawing to a close, and it was only to await the end. The deceased was born in Orangeburg Co.

South Carolina. He moved to Texas in 1856, where he has resided continuously. When the civil war started, he enlisted in the Southern cause, and remained throughout the four years of the unpleasantness. He returned to Texas and has been in Washington Co. or near here ever since. He was a good man, and one who was much admired by all with whom he came in contact. He has had large interests in realty and in those products which have made Texas the land of the farmer and the planter, and he has been successful. His friends are those who have known him, and there will be genuine regret expressed when it is known that he has passed away. Surviving Mr. Felder, in addition to other relatives are a wife and six children. His sons are Thomas E. Fred E. John B. and Sam and his daughters Misses Annie and Lula. All reside in this county except Thomas who is in charge of a large plantation in Matagorda Co.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the late residence on West Main street the interment being at Prairie Lea cemetery. The Banner joins a host of friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.
